MADRID C.F.F

Madrid C.F.F is a Spanish women's football club founded in 2010, recognized for its pioneering role in promoting women's sport, its upward trajectory to the First Division, and its exclusively female-led project for creating and developing talent from the grassroots level, unique in Europe.

Founded in 2010, it has competed in the Women's First Division since the 2017-18 season.

This is a completely female-led football project that seeks to accommodate and empower women and girls in sport.

Our LEGACY

It focuses on the comprehensive development of players, instilling sporting and human values from an early age.

It is a national and global benchmark in promoting sports for girls and women.

It was the most awarded women's club in Madrid in 2015 and has been one of the clubs that has contributed the most players to the Spanish national teams.

It has a youth academy and teams in various divisions, seeking to provide the greatest number of girls and women with access to quality soccer.
